Bespected Sir,

The petitioner is the mother of convict No. 484-Krishnareddy now confined in Central Jail, Bellary. The petitioner humbly present this petition to the Government with hope that the petitioner son may be released from custody to attend on the petitioner and the suffering wife of the prisoner.

The petitioner submits that she is aged 90 years and the prisoner being her only son, and his separation from her at this stage is causing anxiety on the petitioner.

The petitioner has now been looking after wife of the prisoner who is young and require more protection. It is in the year 1947 that the convict Krishnareddy left the house and consequently the family is faced with lot of calamities ever since the departure of the petitioner's sone.

The petitioner's son was leading a peaceful life and there was no faction. The deceased attacked by 9 persons but not by the petitioner's son alone. He has already spent 6 years in the jail.

The petitioner and the dependents of the prisoners son are undergoing lot ot difficulties for their existence.

In these hard days, the petitioner at her old age is unable to hear the strain of the present position resented on account of Krishnareddy being in prison.

The petitioner prays that the benign Government may be pleased to commute the rest of the unexpired portion of sentence and thus show clemency on the suffering beings.

For which act of kindness the petitioner and dependents of Krishnareddy will be ever greatful.

Yours faithfully,

L.T.M. of the petitioner.
